This DVD/Video describes the importance of child advocates (Court Appointed Special Advocates) in the juvenile dependency court. More than 2,000 copies have been made and distributed across the United States and in selected foreign countries.
4. Child Protection Mediation – this DVD was shot in the 1990's, but was re-edited in 2008 to a useful 13 minutes. The DVD is being distributed around the state and country to encourage court systems to utilize mediation in child protection cases. The Courters shot this video as well as the others listed above.

Additionally, worked with judicial educators at CJER to create a number of DVD scenarios for educational purposes.

All of these videos plus several others are available at judgeleonardedwards.com
